

A LUXE DOG-FRIENDLY WEEKEND IN THE COTSWOLDS

Travel Guide

Arrival & Indulgence

Day 1

- ☐ Arrive at a luxurious, dog-friendly accommodation such as The Lygon Arms or The Fish Hotel, both renowned for their canine-friendly amenities, including comfortable beds, treats, and even a delightful "doggy afternoon tea."
- ☐ Dinner at The Wild Rabbit, a dog-friendly Michelin-starred pub, offers a rustic yet refined dining experience. The establishment boasts a cozy atmosphere, making it an inviting choice for both you and your canine companion.
- ☐ Evening Stroll through Broadway – This historic village looks magical at dusk, and the surrounding trails are perfect for a short, scenic dog walk.

Exploring the Cotswolds

Day 2

- ☐ Breakfast at a Dog-Friendly Café – Lynwood & Co. serves fresh pastries and great coffee, with a warm welcome for dogs
- ☐ Visit Broadway Tower – A short, rewarding uphill walk with stunning panoramic views. Dogs are welcome on leads!
- ☐ Dog-Friendly Farm Visit – Cotswold Farm Park is perfect for meeting animals, exploring trails, and enjoying homemade farm treats.
- ☐ Lunch at The Swan in Bibury – Overlooks the most picturesque village in England, with a fabulous dog-friendly garden area.
- ☐ Afternoon in Stow-on-the-Wold – Explore boutique shops, antique stores, and a cozy bookshop with a resident golden retriever.
- ☐ Hike the Cotswold Way – Choose a manageable stretch of this famous trail for rolling hills, hidden villages, and countryside bliss.

@phoebestraveltails

One Last Animal Adventure

Day 3

- ☐ Bourton-on-the-Water Walk & Riverside Coffee – The Venice of the Cotswolds is charming in the morning before crowds arrive.
- ☐ Cotswold Wildlife Park & Gardens – One of the most dog-friendly wildlife parks in the UK! Dogs on leads are welcome to walk through landscaped gardens, spot rhinos grazing on the lawn, and admire exotic animals like giraffes and zebras. A unique experience where your pup can enjoy the adventure alongside you!
- ☐ Coffee & Final Stroll – Stop by the park's café for a quick bite before heading home. If time allows, take a leisurely walk around Burford, one of the prettiest villages in the Cotswolds.

A LUXE DOG-FRIENDLY WEEKEND IN THE COTSWOLDS

Travel Guide

